

I think implementing this broadcast copyright flag would be a horrible mistake. We as consumers have always been able to record broadcasted media whether it be radio or television. Just because the technology is improving, does not mean that the rights of consumers should be taken away. If the broadcasters do not want something recorded, they shouldn't broadcast it. Do not take away the ability from the consumers.